RACE WAR IN TEXAS.

Nine negroes and two white men are dead, a race riot is in progress between armed whites and blacks, the state rangers and militia have been called out and the whole of eastern Texas is seething in the throes of hatred against the negro as the result of the murder of two white men Saturday near Hemphill.

At midnight Sunday 150 armed men marched to the jail at Hemphill, and, after overpowering the jailer and guards, took out six negroes. Five were immediately strung up to nearby trees, and the sixth, to emptying to escape in flight, was shot down. These negroes were Ned Williams, Jerry Evans, Will Johnson, Moses Spellman, Cleve Williams and Will Manuel. The oldest was 27 and the youngest 22. They had been jailed, charged with complicity in the murder of Hugh A. Dean, a young white farmer.

Yesterday a tannoon Burgha Singleton, Hardi Evans and Henry Thomas, all negroes, were found dead on the roadside between Hemphill and Geneva, their bodies riddled with bullets. They, too, were alleged to have had a hand in the plot to kill Dean.

Following the disclosures yesterday morning, the farmers of the vicinity armed themselves with rifles and shotguns and pistols and started on a systematic hunt after every negro of known bad tendencies.

At the same time pistols and other weapons began to be seen in the hands of negroes and the county peace officers found they were powerless to cope with the situation. Harried appeals were made to the governor, and a squad of Rangers was ordered to the scene.

This was the condition when the news went broadcast that Aaron Johnson, another white farmer, had been shot down while sitting on his porch with his wife and baby. His brains and blood were splattered over them. His wife, crazed at the act of the negroes, gave chase, screaming with all her might.

White men, raiding the countryside for negroes, heard her. When they reached her she was sitting beside the body of her husband, insane. It was then that the white men went forth and soon the crack of their pistols portended that the death had been visited on someone.

Let the bodies of Singleton, Evans and Thomas were found. Already charged with having a hand in the death of Dean, the three negroes met summary vengeance when they encountered the white men.

Johnson's death increased the tenacity of the situation. The three dead negroes were known to be pals of a fourth; this fourth was searched for and not found--the officers had beat the avengers to him.

Captured in a cornfield, the negro, Perry Price, was spirited to San Augustine after making a confession that he had been given $5 by Robert Wright, Johnson's brother-in-law, to kill Johnson. Wright was then arrested, and is now in jail at Cent. Tex. The jail is guarded heavily, as the rumor has gone forth that a mob of white men have captured a Houston east and west Texas train, and are forcing the engineer to run to Cent. in order that they may take Wright and hang him.

The condition of frenzied hatred against the negro came as the result of the shooting of a white man by negroes a week ago. At a negro dance Saturday a week ago William Stinson, a white man, had a row, ending in his being killed with a razor. Two negroes were arrested for the crime. Last Saturday night Hugh Dean, one of the best-known young white farmers, was also shot at a negro dance. It was proven that he was merely riding by when drunken negroes set on him and stabbed him to death. Six negroes were arrested and put in the Hemphill jail. These were the six lynched, a seventh is still at large and a reward of $550 is out for him.

CATERPILLARS STOP TRAIN

A dispatch from St. John N. B., as an army of caterpillars stopped a freight train in York county, between Tracy and Oak stations, on the Canadian Pacific Railway Line, between Frederick Junction and McAdam. The train, in a dense mass, started to cross the track, when a heavy freight train ran into them, but soon was stalled. Three times in a distance not greater than a mile the train was stopped by the pests. The train crew were forced to use the shovels to clear the track. They report that there were millions of caterpillars, and that they had eaten almost every green thing in sight, and had wrought particular havoc to poplar trees. More than an hour was spent in getting the train past the spot, and it was only by shoveling the caterpillars off the line and piling up gravel that the trainmen succeeded in overcoming the difficulties. The caterpillars have become a pest in many parts of the province.
